

CONJUNCTIONS - Bindewörter

I went into the café because it was raining. I went into the café because of the rain.	because + sentence because of + noun	weil wegen
I went into the café (in order) to get out of the rain. ... (in order) to have a cup of coffee.	(in order) to + verb	um .. zu
I went into the café so that I wouldn't get wet. I didn't want to get wet, so I went into the café.	so that + sentence so + sentence	sodass damit also daher
Although I like walking in the rain, I went into the café. I went into the café although I like walking in the rain.	although + sentence	obwohl
I wanted to go into the café, all the seats were taken, however .	meist am Ende des Satzes	jedoch

Fill in the missing conjunctions:

although (3x) - in order to (3x) - because of (2x) - so that (1x) - because (1x)

1. I'm going to the chemist's get some painkillers.
2. We went out it was raining.
3. I think he married her her money.
4. Are you studying English get a better job?
5. Mum bought me tickets for the Green Day concert it was my birthday.
6. my mum doesn't like rock music, she went to the show with me.
7. She went with me make sure I wouldn't get into trouble.
8. She was sure I would enjoy the concert the cool music.
9. this was not her favourite kind of music, she had a great time.
10. The next day she borrowed my Green Day CDs she could listen to the songs once again.

CONJUNCTIONS – Bindewörter Lösung

I went into the café because it was raining. I went into the café because of the rain.	because + sentence because of + noun	weil wegen
I went into the café (in order) to get out of the rain. ... (in order) to have a cup of coffee.	(in order) to + verb	um .. zu
I went into the café so that I wouldn't get wet. I didn't want to get wet, so I went into the café.	so that + sentence so + sentence	sodass damit also daher
Although I like walking in the rain, I went into the café. I went into the café although I like walking in the rain.	although + sentence	obwohl
I wanted to go into the café, all the seats were taken, however .	meist am Ende des Satzes	jedoch

Fill in the missing conjunctions:

although (3x) - in order to (3x) - because of (2x) - so that (1x) - because (1x)

- I'm going to the chemist's in order to get some painkillers.
- We went out although it was raining.
- I think he married her because of her money.
- Are you studying English in order to get a better job?
- Mum bought me tickets for the Green Day concert because it was my birthday.
- Although my mum doesn't like rock music, she went to the show with me.
- She went with me in order to make sure I wouldn't get into trouble.
- She was sure I would enjoy the concert because of the cool music.
- Although this was not her favourite kind of music, she had a great time.
- The next day she borrowed my Green Day CDs so that she could listen to the songs once again.