

Past or Past Perfect?

1. I (already, leave) the house when he (come) to see me.
2. After he (eat) his lunch he (feel) sick.
3. She (just, close) the windows when the storm
..... (begin).
4. After he (take) her out to dinner she (fall)
madly in love with him.
5. When Simon (walk) through the park he saw that someone (lose) a glove.
6. As he (forget) to get off the bus, he (must) walk back for a while.
7. He (take) a shower before he (go) out.
8. I (close) the door and realized that I
(leave) my key on the kitchen table.
9. After he (win) the race he (give) lots of interviews.
10. The police (catch) the thieves who (steal) the precious painting.

I'm in the fourth form at school. Today my History teacher (collect) our History reports. I (plan) to do mine at the weekend, but my cousins (came) to see us, so I (can, not) do it. My teacher (be) very angry when I (say) that I (not finish) it.

This morning I (walk) to school. On my way, I (yawn) loudly, with my mouth wide open. Immediately afterwards I (feel) something in my throat. Then I (realise) what ..... (happen). I (swallow) an insect!

Past or Past Perfect? Lösung

1. I had already left the house when he came to see me.
2. After he had eaten his lunch he felt sick.
3. She had just closed the windows when the storm began.
4. After he had taken her out to dinner she fell madly in love with him.
5. When Simon walked / was walking through the park he saw that someone had lost a glove.
6. As he had forgotten to get off the bus, he had to walk back for a while.
7. He had taken a shower before he went out.
8. I closed the door and realized that I had left my key on the kitchen table.
9. After he had won the race he gave lots of interviews.
10. The police caught the thieves who had stolen the precious painting.

I'm in the fourth form at school. Today my History teacher collected our History reports. I had planned to do mine at the weekend, but my cousins had come to see us, so I had not been able to not do it. My teacher was very angry when I said that I had not finished it.

This morning I walked / was walking to school. On my way, I yawned loudly, with my mouth wide open. Immediately afterwards I felt something in my throat. Then I realized what had happened. I had swallowed an insect!